Who are qualified to take the PUP College Entrance Test (PUPCET)?

- Graduating high school students of the current school year
- High school graduates who have not enrolled in any technical/diploma/degree program immediately after high school graduation
- A Philippine Educational Placement Test (PEPT) passer, eligible for admission to college with an average rating of 82 or higher in its five subject areas: Mathematics, Communication Arts (English), Science, Communication Arts (Filipino), and Araling Panlipunan
- An Alternative Learning System Accreditation & Equivalency (ALS A & E) Test for Secondary Level passer, eligible for admission to college and has 100 or higher Standard Score (SS) and an essay writing proficiency level of 2 or higher

Where to apply?

All PUPCET applicants must apply online (using PUP iApply). An applicant is allowed to apply and take the PUPCET in only one (1) campus and only once this school year. PUPCET fee is non-refundable and non-transferrable.

When to Claim ePermit?

- If payment was made through LANDBANK, please allow five (5) working days after payment before claiming your ePermit online
- If payment was made at the branch/campus cashier, please proceed to the branch/campus Admission Services

PUP iApply follows three (3) major steps - Apply Online, Pay Fee, and Claim ePermit.
